

ADVANCED ENGLISH

Attainment (noun) – achievement.

Example: “A low level of educational attainment.”

Attain (verb) – to succeed in something after trying for a long time.

Example: His dedication helped him attain success after years of hard work.

Come into (phrasal verb) – to take over an inheritance from someone who has passed away.

Example: She came into a sizable estate after her grandfather’s passing.

Somewhat (adverb) – a little, around, or about.

Example: He was somewhat interested in the proposal, though not fully convinced.

Moderately (adverb) – advanced medium, or to a medium extent.

Example: The lecture was moderately engaging, keeping most people’s attention.

Probe (verb) – to ask questions to uncover information, especially things people may not want revealed.

Example: The reporter probed deeper into the issue, revealing unexpected details.

Wane (verb) – when something, like a feeling or influence, becomes less strong or powerful.

Example: His influence on the team has been waning, leading to a decrease in his responsibilities.

Bleak (adjective) – lacking anything hopeful or pleasant.

Example: The prospects for the struggling company were looking increasingly bleak.

Prospect (noun) – overall future possibilities, expectations.

Example: The government's economic prospects seem confusing to potential investors.

HAUNT=

to cause repeated suffering or anxiety:

Fighting in Vietnam was an experience that would haunt him for the rest of his life.

30 years after the fire he is still haunted by images of death and destruction.

Overarching (adjective) – including all aspects or covering everything broadly.

Example: The plan has overarching goals to improve education and healthcare.

Setback (noun) – something that delays or hinders progress.

Example: The sudden loss of funding was a major setback for the project.

Devoted (adjective) – giving most of one's time or resources to something.

Example: He is devoted to supporting his local community.

Pillar (noun) – a supporting or essential part.

Example: Trust is a pillar of their successful partnership.

Align (verb) – to be in agreement with something.

Example: Her values align closely with the company's mission.(ayni hizaya gelmek destek bakımından)

Prevalent (adjective) – something commonly existing or widespread.

Example: This tradition is prevalent in many cultures around the world.

Attachment (noun) – a strong emotional closeness to someone or something.

Example: He has a deep attachment to his childhood home.

Longevity (noun) – the ability to last or endure for a long time.

Example: Her longevity in the field speaks to her expertise.

Revelation (noun) – a fact that is newly made known.

Example: The discovery was a revelation to scientists.

Cope (verb) – to deal effectively with something challenging.

Example: She had to cope with the demands of her new job.

Invoke (verb) – to call upon for support or justification.

Example: They invoked legal rights to protect their interests.

Altruism (noun) – selfless concern or sacrifice for others.

Example: His altruism was clear in his volunteer work.

Doomscrolling (noun) – continuously scrolling through negative news, often leading to stress.

Example: He realized his doomscrolling habit was impacting his mood and tried to stop.

Gripped by (phrase) – intensely affected or controlled by something, like a feeling.

Example: The community was gripped by a wave of fear after the incident.

Resourcefulness (noun) – the ability to handle difficult situations skillfully.

Example: Her resourcefulness helped her navigate the project's challenges.

Qualm (noun) – a feeling of doubt or concern.

Example: He had no qualms about accepting the job offer.

‘The qualms about the nutritious pill has just been removed by praise of the famous’

Regulation (noun) – a rule or official directive.

Example: New environmental regulations aim to reduce emissions.

“Newly emerged regulations enable people to protect their health in the field of nutrition.”

Emerge (verb) – to become visible or come to light.

Example: New details about the scandal have started to emerge.

“This newly emerged technology causes so many privacy problems that authorized people cannot handle.”

Pursue (verb) – to go after or follow a goal or objective.

Example: She decided to pursue a degree in architecture.

“Every kind of person should pursue their dreams until they come true.(realize)”

Outnumber (verb) – to be greater in number than something else.

Example: In the survey, urban residents outnumbered rural respondents.

“People who have been living in Africa outnumber those who have been living in Europe.”

Adjust (verb) – to adapt or modify for new conditions.>arrange

Example: It took her a while to adjust to the new schedule.

“The system has been having a problem with the weakness for a long time, so the authorized people made decisions to adjust and repair it as soon as possible.”

Burnout (noun) – extreme exhaustion due to prolonged stress or overwork.

Example: He took a break to recover from burnout.

“The students living in Turkey are suffering from burnout caused by economic issues.”

Cue (noun) – a signal or prompt indicating the right moment for someone to act.

Example: The applause was his cue to start speaking.

“He sent me a cue, which was really impossible to understand, so we could not communicate with each other as we wanted in the room that was filled with old people.”

Lifespan (noun) – the average length of time someone or something is expected to live or function.

Example: The lifespan of a butterfly is typically only a few weeks.

“He has worked throughout his entire lifespan, and eventually, he has been defeated.”

Disrupt (verb) – to cause something to be interrupted, stopped, or disturbed.>setback,obstacle>hinder

Example: The loud construction noise disrupted our meeting.

“Throughout the hike in the forest, it was disrupted by pouring rain, so we had to go home.”

Temperament (noun) – a person’s nature or emotional character, especially in terms of how they react to situations.

Example: She has a calm temperament, even in stressful situations.

“Even though he has a quite calm temperament, he might become extremely stressed during the exam.”

Scarce (adjective) – difficult to find or obtain because there is not much available.

Example: Fresh water is scarce in the desert

“In these times, it is really hard to find people who engage in activities to protect scarce animals around the world.”

Surveil (verb) – to closely observe or monitor someone or something

Example: They surveilled the suspect for weeks

“The security team will surveil the premises during the event”

“According to the stories in the 1984 novel, all governments will surveil everywhere and at all times.”

Wary (adjective) – feeling cautious or alert about potential dangers or problems

Example: She was wary of walking alone at night

“Always be wary of strangers who offer deals that seem too good to be true”

“Despite facing dozens of problems, he has still kept himself wary.”

Residential (adjective) – relating to areas where people live

Example: This is a quiet residential neighborhood

“New rules were implemented to ensure the safety of residential zones”

“Cruel Russia has bombed the residential areas without any thought.”

Implement (verb) – to put a decision, plan, or idea into effect

Example: The company implemented new safety measures last week

“The government plans to implement stricter laws against pollution”

“Our new tactics have been implemented into our working method in the office.”

Due (adjective) – expected or arranged to happen at a particular time

Example: The train is due to arrive at 8 pm

“Her project is due next Monday, and she’s still working on it”

“The report is due by Friday, so we need to finish it soon.”

From scratch (phrase) – starting from the beginning with no prior preparation or materials

Example: He built the model plane from scratch

“They decided to start the business from scratch after moving to a new city”

“By starting everything from scratch, our life has completely changed.”

Perpetrator (noun) – someone who commits a crime or wrongdoing

Example: The police caught the perpetrator of the robbery

“Finding the perpetrator of the cyberattack took months of investigation”

“She is arrested by the cops for the crime of being a perpetrator.”

Comply with (verb) – to follow or obey rules, laws, or instructions

Example: All employees must comply with the company’s safety regulations

“Failure to comply with the new guidelines could result in penalties”

“Our new rector has promised us that he will comply with the old written rules.”

Proliferation (noun) – a sudden increase in the amount of something; spread or expansion [Leap]

Example: The proliferation of technology has changed how we communicate

“There has been a rapid proliferation of fake news on social media platforms”

“Studying my lectures has led to a great proliferation in my academic success.”

Projection (noun) – an estimate or forecast of future trends based on current data

Example: The company’s sales projection for next year looks promising

“Economic projections suggest steady growth over the next decade”

“Based on the government’s projections, the country will have reached economic welfare.”

Undermine (verb) – to weaken or erode the strength or effectiveness of something

Example: His constant criticism undermines the team’s morale

“The new policy may undermine public trust in the government”

“His treatment toward us has started to undermine our trust in him.”

Dismiss (verb) – to disregard or ignore something as unimportant

Example: She dismissed his concerns without a second thought

“The judge dismissed the case due to lack of evidence”

“The children who have been living in this building since their infancy[babyhood] are dismissed by everyone, and that is the main reason why they feel so alone.”

Fabricate (verb) – to make up or invent something, often with the intent to deceive

Example: He fabricated an excuse for being late

“Reports suggest that the story was completely fabricated to gain attention”

“Most of the companies are fabricating people in order to market their products.”

Deceptive (adjective) – misleading or giving a false impression

Example: The advertisement was deemed deceptive and removed

“Appearances can be deceptive, so always verify the details”

“Whatever you see around you might be deceptive; the only truth is the thoughts in your mind.”

Fraud (noun) – trickery or deception intended to result in personal or financial gain

Example: The company was accused of committing fraud in its financial reports

“He was arrested for credit card fraud last week”

Resurrect (verb) – to revive or bring something back to life

Example: They are trying to resurrect an old tradition in the community

“The director plans to resurrect the franchise with a new sequel[a book, film and so on that continues the story of an earlier one]”

Render (verb) – to create or produce something through a process

Example: The artist rendered the scene beautifully in watercolor

“Advancements in technology can render traditional methods obsolete”

Flourish (verb) – to grow or develop successfully

Example: The startup flourished in its first year, gaining significant investment.

“With proper care, the plants will flourish in this environment.”

Thrive (verb) – to grow, develop, or be successful

Example: The company thrived under new management, doubling its profits.

“Children thrive when given love and encouragement.”

Decay (verb) – to become gradually damaged, worse, or less

Example: The abandoned house slowly decayed over the years.

“Without maintenance, metal structures will decay due to rust(paslanmak).”

“If you do not work regularly, you will lose your performance and become rusty.”

Demolish (verb) – to destroy something completely

Example: The crew demolished the old building to make room for new apartments.

“Unfounded rumors can demolish a person’s reputation.”

rumor=said something that is not proved for someone gossip=to talk to someone with another about

Disdain (verb) – to look down on something or someone with contempt

Example: He disdained their efforts, considering them insignificant.

“She spoke with disdain about the new policy changes.”

“I was admiring their research, but on the other hand, some see us with disdain.”

Preserve (verb) – to prevent something from decaying or being damaged[PROTECT] [conserve]

Example: The museum works tirelessly to preserve ancient artifacts.

“Efforts to preserve endangered species are critical.”

Detrimental (adjective) – causing harm or damage

Example: Excessive screen time can have detrimental effects on health.

“Pollution is detrimental to the environment.”

“The facilities all over the world are keeping the world in their grip, preventing anyone from succeeding against them, while extending[EXPAND] their detrimental influence over[on] the benign people.”

Benign (adjective) – pleasant and kind; not harmful

Example: His benign smile reassured everyone in the room.

“The tumor was found to be benign, much to everyone’s relief.”

“Even if everyone tries to be benign toward others, no one can do it perfectly because there will always be exceptions.”

Conserve (verb) – to preserve or protect something from harm

Example: Governments are working to conserve natural resources.

“Turning off lights helps to conserve energy.”

“He is ready to conserve his wealth at all costs, even if it means going against his family.”[means is gerund]

//preserve =önlemek preserve=protect

Conventional (adjective) – ordinary or traditional[stereotyped-cliche]

Example: The house is designed in a conventional style, with a pitched roof.

“Conventional wisdom often guides decision-making.”

“His study method was so conventional compared to ours.”

Notable (adjective) – catching attention or being worthy of notice

Example: Her performance was notable for its emotional depth.

“The book includes a notable contribution from a renowned author.”

Clandestine (adjective) – done in secret, especially if not officially allowed

Example: They held a clandestine meeting to discuss their plans.

“The operation was carried out in a clandestine manner.”

“The university students were studying in a clandestine manner to secure[in formal way to say gain] funding for their Erasmus project.”